Assumption of Risk

Injuries to participants in the Lake Cowichan & District Minor Baseball Association (LCDMBA) may occur from risks inherent to the sport or activity; from placing stress on the body that has not been prepared for; from accidents in learning or practicing playing techniques; from falling to follow game, training, safety or other team rules; from the use of transportation to and from games and other events; and from administration of first aid. Injury can include direct physical, a possibly crippling, injury to one's body, and emotional injury experienced as a result of inflicting injury to another or witnessing it. The severity of injury can range from minor cuts, scrapes or muscle strain to catastrophic injury, such as paralysis or even death.

In consideration of LCDMBA permitting my child or ward to participate in its baseball program, I hereby agree on behalf of my child/ward that he or she will assume the risk of injury or death from participating as outlined above. I release the town, the LCDMBA, executive council, and/or volunteers from any liability resulting from my child/ward's participation in the sport. This assumption of risk and release binds by child's heirs, estate, executor or administrator, and assigns all members of my family.
